

PROVIDENCE Journal

Entertainment & Life

Doing Good: Event raises $220,000 for The Schwartz School at Meeting Street

By The Journal Staff

Posted Jul 6, 2018 at 11:10 AM

Updated Jul 6, 2018 at 11:10 AM

The 8th annual Fishing for A Cause and Seaside Dinner raised more than $220,000 to benefit children and families of Meeting Street. The annual event featured more than 100 anglers and more than 300 guests at the seaside dinner.

Fishermen hit the waters of Buzzards Bay Friday and Saturday, June 22 and 23, for a catch and release tournament.

This year's winning anglers were — in the Striped Bass category: in first place, Nelson Soares at 42.75 pounds; second place, Mel True at 40.75 pounds; and third Steve Marquis at 40.25 pounds.

In the Blue Fish category: first place was Marco Polselli at 26.5 pounds; second place was Paul Samagaio at 22.25.

In the Fluke category: first place was Daniel Rocha at 24.75 pounds; second place was Jay Stoebel at 23.688; third was Candace Gustafson at 23.188.

In the Black Seabass category: first place was Steve Marquis at 23 pounds; second place was Mike Patacao at 22.5; third was Mel True at 21.9375.